

REMARKS

Reconsideration and allowance of the subject application are respectfully solicited.

Claims 19 through 24, all newly-presented, are pending, with Claims 19 and 22 being independent. Claims 1 through 18 have been cancelled without prejudice.

Claims 1 through 18 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) over US 2004/0093616 A1 (Johnson) or US 2005/0235320 A1 (Maze, et al.). All rejections are respectfully traversed.

Claims 19 and 22 variously recite, inter alia, a first electronic program guide image which does not display program information corresponding to programs of less than or equal to a predetermined duration, and a second electronic program guide image which displays program information corresponding to programs of less than or equal to the predetermined duration, with selecting based on input from a user. (The Examiner's attention is directed, for example, to Figs. 6 and 7; of course, the claims are not limited to the disclosed embodiments.)

However, Applicants respectfully submit that neither Johnson nor Maze, et al. discloses or suggests at least the above-discussed claimed features as recited, inter alia, in Claims 19 and 22.

Applicants respectfully submit that Johnson discloses, e.g., searching for programs based on text selected by the user and generating a list for displaying programs matched with the selected text (e.g., Figs. 6 and 8), and that Maze, et al. discloses, e.g., display using search criteria, as well as use of an auxiliary information display 320; however, Applicants respectfully submit that none of the foregoing or remainder of these documents constitutes either a description or a suggestion of at least the above-discussed claimed features as recited, inter alia, in Claims 19 and 22.

Applicants further respectfully submits that there has been no showing of any indication of motivation in the cited documents that would lead one having ordinary skill in the art to arrive at such features.

The dependent claims are also submitted to be patentable because they set forth additional aspects of the present invention and are dependent from independent claims discussed above. Therefore, separate and individual consideration of each dependent claim is respectfully requested.

Applicants submit that this application is in condition for allowance, and a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested.

Applicants' undersigned attorney may be reached in our Washington, D.C. office by telephone at (202) 530-1010. All correspondence should continue to be directed to our address given below.

Respectfully submitted,
